

Mentor of the Year

Veteran respiratory care practitioner Kenny Kinsler of Spalding Regional Medical Center's Cardio-Pulmonary Department was selected Mentor of the Year by the Respiratory Therapy School senior class of 2010 at Southern Crescent Technical College. Kinsler was selected for his serious coaching, guidance and clinical mentoring as a preceptor to the students during their clinic training rotations at the hospital. Kinsler is a two-decade, highly-experienced respiratory care practitioner, registered, and certified in respiratory therapy and pulmonary function technology. The award was sponsored by L. Jack Clark, RRT and M.G.R. – Mid-Georgia Respiratory HOMECARE, Inc., based in Griffin since 1979.
